

Latino

Youth Summit Art Contest

Presented by
The Evergreen State College and
The Hispanic Roundtable in Thurston County

Win cash and see your artwork featured on the 2012 Latino Youth Summit poster and website!

Create a painting or drawing representing Latino life, values or experiences of yesterday, today or tomorrow. You might be inspired by Latino families, friends, or community.

1st Prize: $300

Honorable Mention: $200 (two awards)

Deadline: June 1, 2012

Artwork must be an original work by the contestant, and be no larger than 18"x24". All current or past Latino Youth Summit participants are eligible.

Enter online at www.HispanicRoundtable.org
Please include a digital photograph of your art piece (as a pdf, jpg or tiff file)

Parental permission to enter is required for contestants under 18 years of age. Entries by high school students must be submitted by a school representative. Selected finalists will be asked to submit their art piece to the committee by June 14, 2012, on a piece of mat board or cardboard with a protective cover sheet.

Winning art entries will become the property of The Evergreen State College. Other finalist art will be available for pick up after June 21, 2012.
